

SAYN: Day Two

Our second day began with early morning excitement as we departed from the hotel by bus, enjoying breakfast and music along the way. We arrived at Petra around 10:30 AM and started our walking tour from 10:00 AM to 2:30 PM, just as planned in the infopack.

Petra

Exploring Petra alongside our project partners was a rich and enjoyable experience. We discovered significant landmarks such as the Treasury, the Monastery, and various tombs and temples. The stunning rock-cut architecture of Petra provided a profound sense of wonder and appreciation for Jordan's cultural heritage. The day was filled with fun and learning, as we delved into the history and beauty of this ancient city.

Arriving at Wadi Rum

In the second part of the day we departed from Petra, having lunch on the bus as we traveled. Our journey was comfortable and enjoyable, with enough stops to buy water and snacks. In the afternoon, we arrived at our next destination, Wadi Rum, around 4:00 PM. We checked into remarkable, cozy tents for our overnight stay, which made us feel like we had just landed on Mars. The surreal landscape and otherworldly atmosphere were out of this world!

After a brief rest, we embarked on another thrilling journey and activity: riding 4*4 vehicles. this adventure provided an adrenaline rush and allowed us to appreciate the natural beauty of the area. We reached an incredible landmark filled with camels and people, the perfect spot to see the sunset on Wadi Rum. Two participants from our team were struck by the thought: 'As we witnessed the sunset of Wadi Rum, it too witnessed a day woven with our joy and discovery.'

Evening Activities

After enjoying the breathtaking sunset at Wadi Rum, we returned to the tents for a brief rest. Dinner served at 7:30 PM showcased delightful Jordanian culinary techniques that left everyone thoroughly satisfied. following dinner, we gathered for a peace circle and meditation session led by the Jordanian team. This reflective activity involved reflecting on our potentials and discussing the hardships we might face in achieving our goals. Participants were paired up to share their thoughts and insights, fostering a deeper sense of connection and mutual support among all participants.
